BREED THEATER.

"The Passion Play," a Magnificent Lenten Motion-Picture Festival for Monday and Tuesday Only.

Always in the lead in the best of motion pictures, the Breed offers for Monday and Tuesday only the superbreigious speciacle depiction of the life of Christ, entitled The Pussion Play. This wonderful story has hererefere been shown in this city in a way that has not brought out its mag-ufficent details, so Manager McNuity unfocent details so Manager McNuity also secured the special Oberanmergan ilm, taken at the last predoction at material of this most holy play. There are four reels of this subject, of a film made this season especially for the lenter season, and there are 4,000 feet of exquisitely and brilliantly hand-clored film showing every detail of the great Bayerian production which thousands of people pay thousands of dollars to journey to see in the quaint little village of Oberanmergan. The presentation of this picture in its enurety requires nearly one hour and a bair, and includes the wonderful nail, and includes the wonderful scenes of The Annunciation, the Won-lerful Star, the Birth of Christ, and me other important events up to the sceres of Jesus in the Temple with the Doctors. The Division of the Miracles, shows the Raptism of Christ, Mary Magdalene at the feet of Christ, Jesus and the Women of Samaria, Jesus Sealing the Sick, Resurrection of Jal-us Daughter, Christ Walking on the Water, Raising of Lazarus, and The Transfiguration.

The supreme glory of this marvelis and awe inspiring spectacle is the Division of the Passion and Death, beginning with the Triumphal Entrance into Jerussiem by Christ on Palm

AT THE AUDITORIUM! "War on the Plains."

On Monday a very attractive vaude-lie and motion picture bill has been booked by the management of this vandeville thearer and it promises to make up one of the best combinations seen here in a long time.

The vandeville programme will be headed by Hanlon & Hanlon, gymnasts and strong men, who perform many startling feats of strength which show the hardest of training and wonderful development of muscie.

"End Tim Make Good?" is the title of an 18-minute sketch which will be resented by Dickens & Floyd, a mixed team of clever artists. It is a little remance emerging from the characters seen among the poorer classes of methodistan life interspersed with songs and dances in keeping with the characters.

Inex, a very comety girl violinist ill play her way into immediate fareference on those who hear her.
The big two-reel motion picture three which has been advertised for orday and Tuesday is War on the ins, a very spectacular feature, as film is the first of the Bison mining's big two-reel features. The he rights to them all, and one will be very Monday and Tuesday or till further notice. The entire 191 famels outfit is used in singing these wonderful productions.

WHA MY SOUL PASS THROUGH IRELANDI

The valleys and bills of my dear native land.
When my soul takes its flight from this dark world of sorrow
Will it pass through old Ireland to join the blest band?

Oh! Sogarth aroon, sure I know that In Heaven
The loved ones are waiting and watching for me.
And the Lord knows how anxious I am to be with them
In those regions of joy amid souls pure and free.
Yet, Sogaril aroon, ere you leave me forever,
Relieve the last doubt of a poor dying soul,
Whose hope, next to God, is to know that when leaving
"Twill pass through old Ireland on the way to its goal.

the way to its goal.

Oh! Sogarth aroon, I have kept through all changes
The thrice blessed sharprock to lay o'er my clay;
And oh! It has minded me, often and often,
for away.

Of the bright swilling valley so far,
far away.
Then tell me, I pray, shall I ever again see
The place where it grew on my ewn native sod?

When my body lies celd in the land of the stranger

Will my soul pass through leeland on its way to our God?

By Denis O'Sullivan.

(Did anyone ever hear or conceive a more beautiful idea than that expressed by Charles J. Kickham in his stery of "innocknegow," where Father O'Neili telis of the old woman who is dying in a strange land, and having received the last sacramant, turns to the priest and anxiously inquires: "Will my soul pass through Ireland")—Author's note.

Oh! Sogarth aroon, sure I know life is floating.

Soon, soon in the strange earth my poor bones will lie.

I have said the last prayer and received the last prayer and received the Lord's willing. I'm ready to die.

But, Sogarth aroon, can I never again see.
